

Glenn Cardier House Concert

“The greatest singer/songwriter working in Australia today”.....Bernie Howitt

Saturday Night, 7:30 PM September 2, 2017 at Di and Fred's House

Glenn played the first two Sunbury festivals and worked with the likes of Frank Zappa, Spike Milligan, and Fairport Convention. His songs have been recorded internationally. He broke through in the tough UK folk circuit. Glenn Cardier's re-emergence in the 2000s as a songwriter/performer of real distinction has been nothing short of extraordinary. Onstage, there are the trademark flashes of dark humour in his songs of stark beauty and a blue soul. There's a touch of Beefheart in his voice, a hint of Cohen in the lyrics, a pinch of Elvis here and there. But underlying it all are the songs. Happy/sad songs. Sweet/crazy songs. Cardier songs.

Impossible to categorise this man.

Glenn Cardier is Dianne's favourite artist. And she is a fussy woman!

Please feel free to BYO and a small plate of nibbles for yourself if required
